English Language Arts Course Descriptions

Grade 12 Language Arts

5831 | Composition: 5 credits — grades 12 — English Language Arts — prerequisite: Proficiency on State Assessment

This course emphasizes expository essays, including summaries, personal essays, and argumentative and documented writing. The course stresses improvement in generating, developing and organizing ideas, editing and revision, and competence in mechanics. At FCHS: This course will be multi-genre, including academic, career, and creative writing. This course is strongly recommended prior to taking Advanced Composition.

5491 | Basic Composition: 5 credits — grades 12 — English Language Arts — no prerequisite

This course is designed for students who want to improve sentence structure, paragraphing, and basic essay writing. In addition to writing skill development, students will have the opportunity to improve word-processing skills.

7282 | AP Seminar (Year 1) 10 credits, grades 11 or 12. English Language Arts Credit
